I recently led a Congressional Delegation (CODEL) to Iraq, Qatar, Jordan, and Germany to meet with our troops and assess the challenges we face in Iraq. I created this webpage so that you can share in my experience and see for yourself how our men and women in uniform live and carry out their mission throughout the region.

Click here to read about my trip and my reflections following the CODEL to the Middle East.